Forgotten.

How soon we are forgotten
When the grave conceals our clay
And sounds of lamentation
Cease their echoes in a day.
How soon we are forgotten
Even while we're living here
By friends who once applauded
Every day and month and year.
How soon we are forgotten
When our wealth and power depart
And only reminiscence
Lingers in the head and heart.
How soon we are forgotten
When our haughty lights are out
And guests have all departed
Muddled by the midnight rout.
How soon we are forgotten
When disease and age abound
And on the public highway
We are seen no more around.
How soon we are forgotten
In the rosh of busy life
As memory is vanishing
In this world of sin and strife.
How soon we are forgotten
Even in the halls of fame
When bronze and marble statues
Bare no record of our name.
—John A. Joyce

MILLEDGEVILLE.

Prof. E. L. Grubbs will on Monday, Feb. 6, 1905, open a private high school at Pratt Academy, near the Methodist church, Moreland, to continue three months, until April 25th. Terms, $2 per month.
Mrs. E. L. Grubbs closed her school at Moore's district, No. 62, Friday. Several of the little fellows recited choice selections and the term closed with a treat of candy and apples for the little ones. Miss Margery Gibson received a prize for attending school every day and the fifth grade spelling prize. Nathan Coffman won the third grade spelling prize, Patrick Daugherty the second grade spelling prize and Robert Fox the first grade spelling prize. The following pupils received roll of honor cards: Robert Fox and Laura Pittman, 90; Patrick and Jessie Daugherty, Margery Gibson and Laura Kilder, 80; Mack Statton, 58; Nathan Pittman, 56; James Daugherty and Chester Statton, 54; Jerry Daugherty, 52; Nathan Coffman, 50.

LAND, STOCK, CROPS, ETC.

C. C. Withers sold to M. B. Eubanks a lot of 15 head shorthorn steers.
W. P. Gibson delivered to Eubanks Harris & Connor, one yearling, 67 head of fine cattle, averaging 1,145 pounds at 40c.
Came to my place Dec. 10, a black gilt sow. Owner can get same by paying for this notice and her keep. J. Frank Smith, Stanford, Ky.
The Todd County Tobacco Planters' Association decided upon a reduction of acreage, the amount to be cultivated by each member not to exceed seven and one-half acres to the 100 acres owned by him.
Herdie Cecil, the five-year-old mare with which I. C. James won the sweep-stake roadster rig at Louisville last summer, was sold by Allen S. Edelen to Kansas City parties for $700—Hardsburg Democrat.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy The Best Made.

"In my opinion Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is the best made for colds," says Mrs. Cora Walker, of Porterville, Cal. There is no doubt about its being the best. No other will cure a cold so quickly. No other is so sure a preventive of pneumonia. No other is so pleasant and safe to take. These are good reasons why it should be preferred to any other. The fact is that few people are satisfied with any other after having once used this remedy. For sale by all Druggists.

"What did you say John?" queries Mrs. John, viewing her full length in the mirror.
"I said," repeated John distinctly, "it is clothes that break the man!"

Spilled Her Beauty.

Harriet Howard, of 209 W. 34th street, New York, at one time had her beauty spoiled with skin trouble. She writes: "I had Salt Rheum or Eczema for years, but nothing would cure it, until I used Bucklen's Arnica Salve." A quick and sure healer for cuts, burns and sores. See at Penny's Drug Store and Ives Bros., Crab Orchard, Ky.

A Macon, Ga. telegram says: Information reaching this city from Lafayette, Ala., that a back to that town was dynamited and $40,000 taken. Citizens are scouring the country for the burglars.

HUSTONVILLE.

W. G. Coover, one of our up-to-date farmers, has 100 lambs so far.
The harvest on here and a fine 4-inch quantity of ice is being gathered.
Several more graduates have been added to the list of school pupils since last report.

Mrs. Nathan Pipes arrived home on Saturday from Atlanta, where she has been with her husband, who is in the male trade.
Mrs. Wm. Moran desires through these columns to return her heartfelt thanks to the many friends who aided and sympathized with her in her deep sorrows.
Our postmaster is ordered to commence rural service on route No. 1 on Feb. 15 to make all preparations necessary to the service to begin on that date without fail.

A splendid 50 acre blue grass farm in a high state of cultivation, with over 50 acres of virgin soil well set in blue grass, with a fine six room dwelling and all necessary out buildings beautifully situated. Apply quick to W. R. Williams.

The grand opening banquet and hop at the Hotel Waterford will be on Thursday, 25th. This affair will be an occasion of unusual interest and elegance and will be attended by many friends of the host and hostess from all parts of the State.

The spirit of progress still abounds in our midst and the sound of the festive saw and hammer will begin with the early spring, and from the number of new buildings under contemplation the coming season will fully equal if not exceed the past.

Many sorrowing friends and relatives from all over the State attended the funeral of Mrs. J. L. Conaway covered the grave with handsome floral offerings, typical of the beautiful life of their departed friend and perpetuating her memory with the Master's loveliest ornament of His noble footstool.

The early bird catches the worm and they have been feasting on those "cut prices" on "good clothes" to your measure, but there are lots of good things left in the line yet. Come in and give me an order for your spring suit now and save from $5 to $15. I will have them shipped any time you say. A. J. Adams

Hustonville merchants are catering to the wants of an up-to-date and well-to-do people, hence they carry large and well-assorted stocks, each specialty carried in its style and with city methods, close out by clearance sales at very greatly reduced prices all left-overs and prepare for new goods for the next season. The most fastidious buyers can find here in season everything the market afford and at more reasonable prices than in larger cities, because the expenses are less.

KILLS GERMS OF CATARRH.

Hymel Goes to the Root of the Disease and Makes Astonishing Cures.

Catarrh cannot be cured by the use of pills, liquid medicines and so-called system tonics. Under such treatment the germs of the disease will still live in the air passages and increase and multiply. Hymel is the only scientific and thorough way to cure catarrh. Killing the germs in the air passages, it enters the blood with the oxygen, destroys the microbes in the blood and effectually drives from the system all traces of catarrh.

Thousands of testimonials have been given as to the astonishing cures made by this remedy.

Mrs. L. Kendu, 76 Western avenue, Cleveland, Ohio, writes: "I believe Hymel saved my life. I am better now than I have been in 30 years. Many doctors, both in England and France, treated me for catarrh, but I was not cured till I found Hymel."

Probably the strongest evidence that can be offered as to the power of Hymel to cure catarrh is the fact that Hymel will agree to refund the money if you say Hymel has not cured you.

The complete Hymel outfit costs but $1.50, consisting of an inhaler, dropper and sufficient Hymel to last several weeks. This will effect a cure in ordinary cases. But for chronic and deep-seated cases of catarrh, longer use may be necessary, and then extra bottles of Hymel can be obtained for 50c.

James W. Hess was hanged in the Lexington jail yard for the murder of Mrs. Martha McClinton Martin. Shortly after midnight he removed from his mouth a small blade and handed it to the death watch, with the statement that he had carried it for weeks with the intention of taking his life, but changed his plans after a visit from his three wives, who sang and prayed with him. He made a speech from the scaffold, warning his hearers against envy and bad company.

Cured His Mother of Rheumatism.

"My mother has been a sufferer for many years from rheumatism," says W. H. Howard, of Husbard, Pennsylvania. "At times she was unable to move at all, while at all times walking was painful. I presented her with a bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Balm, and after a few applications she decided it was the most wonderful pain-reliever she had ever tried. In fact, she is never without it now, and it is all times able to walk. An occasional application of Pain Balm keeps away the pain that she was formerly troubled with." For sale by all Druggists.

THE INTERIOR JOURNAL

E. C. WALTON

LETTERS signed by Wm. S. Taylor and Charles Flieley, the Kentucky representatives in the House of Representatives, have been received by Indiana Congressmen asking them to interfere with Gov. Hanley to the end that they may be extradited if another attempt is made to have them returned to Kentucky for trial. The writers call attention to the newspaper dispatches saying Gov. Beckam is about to issue regulations on Gov. Hanley, and add that the purpose ostensibly is that they may be taken back for trial, but "actually be railroaded through a form of trial, then butchered by a Goebellian body." They continue by saying that, while there is less discussion about this matter now than there was when it was first before Gov. Moore and Durbin, the writers do not believe that this indicates the people of Indiana are any more willing that such a demand should be granted now than they were then. They say that they have not sought to approach Gov. Hanley nor heretofore to have him approached in their behalf, and have no authoritative information as to how he feels. "We do know," they add, "that he is a good republican and a just man."

WINDY Joe Blackburn is getting too particular for anything. He wants to be returned to the Senate, but absolutely protests against any support Gov. Beckam can give him—knowing full well that he can get no assistance from that quarter. What's the matter with letting Joseph rest a term or two in order that he may be a little more appreciative of the honors Kentucky has showered upon him?

OUR townsman, Geo. H. G. Davidson, is a recipient candidate for the republican nomination for Governor, according to a Washington dispatch. We don't believe a word of it, for we have too much confidence in the Judge's judgment. He knows he wouldn't have a ghost of a show if nominated and he's betting too odd to enjoy chasing the phantasmagoria.

AN idea of how little Congress cares about appropriating money for pensions is shown in the following dispatch: "A new speed record of legislation was made for the House Saturday in the passage of 459 pension bills in 108 minutes." And the war has been over 40 years.

LOUISVILLE is holding her own as regards population. There were 30 births there last week against 30 deaths.

POLITICAL.

A Washington dispatch says that Postmaster Sweeney, of Paris, will not be reappointed. The president has accepted the resignation of Wm. Williams, commissioner of immigration at New York. It is said that the President will appoint George W. Roosevelt to be United States Consul General at Berlin. The president has appointed Vespien Warner to be commissioner of pensions. Mr. Warner is a member of Congress from Illinois. At a caucus of the republican members of the Massachusetts Legislature, Henry Cabot Lodge and W. Murray Crane were nominated for United States Senators.

All political parties in Panama have petitioned to Minister Barrett that the functions of minister to Panama and governor of the canal zone be not performed by the same person. President Roosevelt has come out against the proposition to reduce the Congressional representation in the South and it is said no legislation in this direction will be put through during his term of office.

In the Hunter-Edwards contest at Louisville, former Senator Thurston himself a leading republican, says the circumstances surrounding the Hunter-Edwards fight, were "a disgrace to the State of Kentucky and the republican party."

The Statehood bill will hold the Senate in the Senate this week, with little prospect for a vote. Modification of the bill is talked of, one element seeking to deny Statehood to New Mexico and Arizona, while granting it to Oklahoma and Indian Territory.

The president transmitted to Congress a message recommending the reduction of the number of Panama Canal Commissioners to five or even three. He says experience has demonstrated that the present body of seven is unwieldy. He advises Congress to vest the authority to prescribe the duties, powers and salaries of the commissioners in the president.

Fourth Assistant Postmaster General Flieley has resigned. Governor Beckam made a scathing reply to Senator Blackburn. The vote for president and vice president will be counted at Washington Feb. 8.

Thomas H. Carter was elected United States Senator at Helena, Mont., receiving 52 votes.

Representative Blair offered a bill authorizing the removal of the Capitol to Lexington. It was ruled out of order.

Kentucky republicans now in Washington believe that John W. Yerkes is already sniping his affairs with a view to becoming a candidate for the republican nomination for governor in Kentucky in 1907. Some of them say that his decision to have nothing to do with the distribution of the pastorate patronage in this State is due to the fact that it would embarrass his prospects to mix up in it.

From sources which are trustworthy the present status of the Hunter-Edwards-White contest is as follows: Three members favor Edwards, three favor Hunter, two believe White should be seated and one member has not decided anything to indicate his position. It is believed that two of the three democrats are for White. The democrats believe White's campaign was conducted on fairer lines than that of Hunter or Edwards and they are inclined to take a position to show that the republican party of Kentucky has no right to complain at any time of Goebellism. One democrat declared that the democracy of Kentucky would have to err further than it ever has to even approach this disgraceful political method employed in the Eleventh district. If a minority report is rendered it will tear the republican organization to pieces, and will ventilate "assassination and other methods of the republican party" on the floor—Louisville Times Washington Dispatch.

Here and There.

Gen. Snodgrass is to be court-martialed when he returns to Russia for surrendering Fort Arthur. This will be the first instance on record where a man was court-martialed for letting loose a red hot poker—Ellisbushnews News.

"Two men in Buffalo," said ex-Lieut. Gov. Wood, "recently had a heated argument over the question whether the wife of a governor of a State had an official title. One man contended that she should be addressed as 'Mrs. Governor So and So,' while the other man stoutly insisted that she was simply 'Mrs. Blank, wife of Gov. Blank.' Finally they agreed to submit the question to the first man they should meet. He proved to be an Irishman. The case was put before him, and he was asked for a decision."

"'Neither of you is right,' said the Irishman, after a moment's reflection. 'The wife of a governor is a governess.'"

EVERYBODY IS NOT A TAILOR!
Having been in the Tailoring business all my life I feel confident in saying I represent one of the best tailors in the country. With my experience in taking measures, and directions I give, your clothes are bound to be satisfactory as my ready patrons in this line will bear me out. My prices are the same as inexperienced men who are in the business. I also have a nice line of fancy chevrons and other suitings I will cut and make if you desire at a moderate price. Thank you for past favors, I am, yours,
H. C. RUPLEY, the Tailor.

Valuable Property For Sale.
Two acres of land, a two-story front 7-room cottage. The house is new. A splendid garden and orchard. There is a large mill on the place; a good crusher and the dam is in good repair and the natural power is great economy in running the mill. Does a splendid business. Everything is in good repair and has all necessary out-buildings. The owner's only reason for selling is the rash of other business, as he has extensive farming interests to look after. This property is on the Hanging Rock about 4 miles from Stanford, and can be bought at a bargain. For further particulars, address S. C. TURNER, Lytle, Ky., or L. R. HUGHES, Stanford, Ky.

FOR SALE OR RENT!

LOCALS.

W. H. HIGGINS has just received a car-load of Pittsburgh Perfect Pencils, and at interesting prices. See him in time.

If you want a magazine of any kind, write Miss Hattie Harris, Crab Orchard. She will order what you want at a big saving to you.

The supervisors for Garrard county completed their work yesterday. They found the county's wealth to be $1,559,000—$92,000 more than last year.

Buy your Embroideries and Laces now of John P. Jones. You save big money and this line in particular is far superior to anything shown in Stanford.

FOR SALE.—A clean, fresh stock of Dry Goods and a nice residence in Stanford, Ky. John P. Jones.

FARMERS who like good horses should read to a advertisement of W. E. Perkins, Crab Orchard, which appears on our first page.

Get your buggy, carriage and wagon repaired by Aldridge, 25 years' experience. Horse shoeing by George Sandusky. All work guaranteed. H. D. Aldridge.

JANUARY is fastidiously passing away and many of those who promised to pay us the first of the month have not done so. Let this be a gentle reminder that we want all who owe us to come at once and settle. This means you if you have not paid us. J. R. Harris & Co. Turberville.

MARTIN.—Mr. C. Martin, for years a splendid citizen of this county, died at Paris yesterday of pneumonia, caused from injuries and exposure sustained in a runaway some weeks ago. He is survived by a wife and several children. Mr. Martin was 50 years old and a good man in every sense of the word.

The Central Ky. Real Estate Exchange & Title Co. has for sale two tracts of land lying in the Southern end of Lincoln county, near Southern railway. One tract consists of 35 acres, the other five acres. The owner of this property lives at a distance and we are instructed to sell it privately. It must go. The best bid gets it. For further particulars see or address L. R. Hughes, Stanford, Ky.

BAILEY.—Where the spirit of Mrs. James P. Bailey returned to the God Who gave it, one of the grandest, best women in our acquaintance passed from earthly sojourn. After an illness of some length the end came peacefully at 7:30 Saturday morning and now the home she had been the sunshine of for many years is broken up and sorrow supersedes gladness and joy. The husband who had looked with pride on his most excellent wife is crushed with grief as he thinks of his helpmeet of eight or 10 years sleeping her last sleep in Hustonville cemetery. The sons and daughter of this Godly, tender mother are heart-broken because "mother," who was first in their thoughts and whose thoughts in turn were constantly of them, is not in her accustomed place but has joined the loved ones on the other shore. Friends and relatives are deeply grieved, for in Mrs. Bailey they had a friend in all the world implies. The writer has been a beneficiary of her kind friendship and he feels deeply the loss he sustains in her death. May the life this splendid woman, who we believe is now receiving the reward promised the truly righteous, be a guiding star and an influence for good to those who would make the world better for having lived in it. Mrs. Bailey was 52 years old, a devout member of the Christian church and a thoroughly consecrated Christian. She believed in doing good, rather than talking good, and her kind deeds will live long after the flowers have faded and died on her grave. She was the only child of Mr. John Bledsoe, who died some five years ago, and who was a splendid type of the old Kentucky gentleman. Her mother, who like the daughter, was an excellent woman, died four years previous to her father's demise. Mrs. Bailey moved to Stanford from Hustonville with her husband about 25 years ago and at once took a leading part in church and state of her work. She continued in this noble cause as long as her health would permit and reluctantly gave it up when the infirmities came. She loved her church and her seat was rarely ever vacant at its services. As a member of the Christian church for a number of years she was always in time and the music was then, as it is now, a feature of the services. A great admirer of Eld. W. E. Ellis, who was her pastor at one time, it was her request that she be buried there and he did so at 10:30 yesterday morning at the church. The discourse was a most beautiful, touching and appropriate one. He was assisted by Eld. L. M. Omer, the pastor, and Rev. O. M. Hunt, who was an ardent admirer of Mrs. Bailey. At the conclusion of the services, the remains were taken to Hustonville and laid to rest in the pretty little cemetery where so many of those who had loved her are buried. A large crowd, considering the cold weather, was present and flowers in profusion spoke in no uncertain tone the admiration and high esteem in which this God-like woman was held.

THE supervisors will complete their labors to day. The rains will be between $50,000 and $75,000.

POULTRY WANTED.—Will pay 11c for good turkeys, 10c for chickens, H. B. Northcutt, Stanford, Ky.

The coldest day of the present winter was Sunday, when the mercury went to zero. It was slightly warmer yesterday, and to-day is beautiful, with prospects of still warmer weather.

THE Dix River Mining Company, with a capital of $10,000, has been incorporated at Frankfort. The incorporators are Messrs J. N. Menefee, A. C. Sine and Will Severance, of this place.

THAT splendid medicine firm, Chamberlain & Co., Des Moines, Iowa, begins this issue the 25th year of their advertisement in this paper. They are the most satisfactory people to deal with we know of and are first-class payers.

THIS WEATHER SUGGESTS OVERCOATS. We offer any Overcoat in our house at 25 per cent. discount from regular price. There will be lots more cold weather—plenty time in which to get more than your money's worth in wear. Cummins & McClary.

THE second Quarterly meeting of the Stanford church will convene here next Saturday and Sunday. There will be preaching Saturday morning at 10:30, at the close of which the Quarterly Conference will be held. Rev. J. W. Simpson, the Presiding Elder, will be present.

THE McKinney Deposit Bank, which was opened Jan. 2nd, has filed articles of incorporation with the secretary of State. The capital stock is $15,000. By the way, this bank is already doing a fine business and is filling a long felt want for the people of the McKinney section of the county.

ONE of the cleanest, best shows ever at Walton's Opera House was that of David H. Lewis' Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde Friday evening. The crowd was small as usual, but we suppose the bad weather kept some away. We hope Mr. Lewis will send another of his clever attractions this way.

ONCE again we wish to remind our friends of the splendid stock of Dry Goods we are closing out at cost. We have elegant things in Spring dress goods and we feel that we do you a great favor by urging you to come and make your selection now, at this great saving in price. The stock is all strictly high-class merchandise, as our customers well know we never deal in off shades, job lots or shoddies. John P. Jones.

BERRING.—Dr. H. C. Berring died at Lancaster at 10 o'clock this morning, aged 72. He had been ill of blood poisoning for some weeks and his death was not unexpected. A wife, who was a Miss Fisher, and four children—Medames Jerry Bessie, C. W. Anderson and Jesse Walden and Mr. Fisher. Burial place at Lancaster to-morrow. Dr. Berring was a member of the Christian church, a popular man and a good citizen.

It looks like Stanford will have a Congressman next. The following appeared in Sunday's Courier-Journal and was sent from Lexington: "J. M. Alverson, the member of the Legislature from Lincoln county, passed three days to-night en route to his home in Stanford, and while here he made the announcement that he would be a candidate for Congress in the Eighth district at the next Congressional election, two years hence. Alverson was nominated and elected to the Legislature without opposition and also received the nomination at the last primary without opposition." Commenting on Mr. Alverson the Lexington Leader says: "His record in the political ladder has been rapid. When he announced himself a candidate for the democratic nomination for Representative of Lincoln county several years ago, few people considered his candidacy. But he proved himself a wonderful campaigner and saw nearly every voter in the county winning the nomination 'going away' He was easily elected and has again been nominated, this time without opposition. He is the author of the new vagrancy law passed by the last Legislature." We have not interviewed Mr. Alverson on his future intentions, but if he goes into the race he will undoubtedly make it interesting for the gentleman who pits himself against him.

TRADE WITH

McCORMACK & PEACOCK,

HUSTONVILLE, KENTUCKY.

REDD. GARNON has secured a position with the Stearns Lumber Co., at Searsville.

N. J. F. WHEAT, of Middleburg, was substantial caller at this office yesterday.

Miss SALLIE KING returned yesterday on a visit to Mrs. W. R. Hamrick, London.

Mrs. S. A. MIDDLETON, of Crab Orchard, was the guest of her daughter, Mrs. P. Gray.

Mrs. W. H. CHERRY has her guests Medames Annie Allen and Sarah Shivers, of Lexington.

ALVA ABRAMS is over from Lexington helping his uncle, Mr. S. B. Levy, at the Grand Leader.

MESSES J. W. AND J. B. HOCKER, of Horseville, were here Sunday to view Mr. Bailey's remains.

REV. B. R. MILLS and wife, who have been in the far West, are with her parents, M. and Mrs. J. H. Bright.

HON. H. D. GREGORY, of Covington, came over to join his family and attend the burial of Mrs. James P. Bailey.

ATTORNEYS G. B. SAGLEY, W. S. Burt and Thomas H. Shanks are in Stanford to-day on legal business.

MRS. J. J. STEPHENSON has returned from the bedside of her sick sister-in-law, Mrs. Bessie Jones, of Lincoln county. Monticello Outlook.

"I appreciate very much my old home paper and could not do without it," writes Mrs. W. H. Stivali, of Clearburn, Texas, as she sends $1 for 1905. James W. Venable, of Liberty, and Joe B. Williams, of St. Salem, braved the bad weather and saw Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde at Walton's Opera House Friday night.

THE Woman's Music Club will give a recital at the home of Mrs. C. F. Campbell, Jr., on the afternoon of Thursday, Jan. 26. They have secured for this occasion Mrs. Little Logan Keen as vocalist and Mrs. Carrie Barbour as pianist.

—M. G. A. PERKINS left last week for a business trip to Lexington, New Mexico, where he has an interest in a coal ranch. Dr. W. W. Phillips leaves this week for his new headquarters at Bursfield. He leaves many friends here who wish him well—Casey County Democrat.

MAY ENGLEMAN, formerly of Shelby City, who took the advice of Horace Greely about a year ago went West, has returned and says he is satisfied with Kentucky. He has accepted a position with the Crawford Shoe Co., of New York, and will travel through the State.—Advocate.

A REMOVAL from our locality that has caused much regret is that of Mr. R. E. Goddard and family, who have moved to Temple Hill farm near Harrodsburg. Mr. Goddard and family have resided near Burgin for several years and, without a doubt, was one of the best neighbors and kindest and clearest men who ever lived in this part, especially the poor, whom he always assisted in time of need.—Burgin Courier-Harrodsburg Democrat.

HELD OVER.—The fellow Griffin, who confessed to Sheriff M. S. Baughman that he had in his possession a stolen horse, was tried before Judge Bailey and held over to circuit court in $500, which he could not give. The horse was the property of a widow, who lives near Elkins, Pulaski county, and Mr. Baughman sent the animal to her.

DUDDEKAR.—Mr. Anne Dudderar died at her home at McKinney after a long illness and was buried at Goshen at noon yesterday, after short services at the grave by Rev. O. M. Huey. It was not good fortune to know Mrs. Dudderar very well, those who know her best say that a better woman never lived. The fact that she raised several sets of children for other people, some of them not even related to her, shows that her life was well spent and that she was a Godly woman. "Aunt Anne," as she was affectionately called, will be sadly missed by the poor of her section, whom she helped with her means as well as by her kind words and deeds. She was the widow of Lewis Dudderar and no children survive her, but the many children she so tenderly cared for and who loved her so dearly feel keenly their loss and are deeply grieved at her taking away.

FOR SALE.—A desirable residence adjoining the property of Caldwell Female College, in Danville. A rare bargain. For terms, call on or address W. W. Menefee, Danville, Ky.

THE L. & N. will spend $2,000,000 improving the Kentucky Central division. It would take almost that much money to put the track between Stanford and Richmond in good condition.

SHERIFF BAUGHMAN'S delinquent list will be printed Friday. Bauger pays him to-day and save yourself the humiliation of seeing your property advertised. He can't wait on you always for the money.

MESSES MARY HIGGINS and Mary McRoberts will give a piano recital in the auditorium of the Grand School on Friday evening, 27th. These young artists will be assisted by local talents that will prove very entertaining.

GEORGE D. WATKINSON, minstrel of the Weatherford Hotel, Hustonville, will have a grand opening of his magnificent new hostelry on Thursday, Jan. 26th. The program of the occasion will include a ball and banquet.

EDITOR CAMPBELL, of the Somerset Journal, who is up-to-the-minute on pumpkins, gives this bit of advice: In feeding pumpkins to cows giving milk, blades should not be given them as they are injurious, and do not chop the pieces too small for fear of choking.

WHILE Mr. J. M. Alverson is in Frankfort building capitol, etc., our traveling representative is doing his work as job printer and will not be able to make his usual trips to courts and the like. We will appreciate it if our patrons will send their orders for printing, advertising and remittances by mail until further notice.

Stomach Troubles and Constipation.

"Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets are the best thing for stomach troubles and constipation I have ever sold," says J. R. Cullman, a druggist of Potomac, Md. They are easy to take and always give satisfaction. I tell my customers to try them and if not satisfactory to come back and get their money, but have never had a complaint!" For sale by all druggists.

"He has his good points."

"So I found out when he elbowed his way through the car last night!"

Nice Home For Sale!

Having decided to return to Somerset, I offer for sale privately my home on East Main street in Stanford. The residence is a six-room cottage, broad new, bath room and all conveniences. The lot contains about 1 1/2 acres of land and the home is a most delightful one. For further particulars call on or write me at Somerset, J. B. Beck or Wm. Beck at Stanford.

HOTEL PROPERTY AND STABLE FOR SALE!

I desire to sell privately my hotel property and lively stable in Hustonville. Building can be used as hotel or private residence and is well arranged for two families. Stable has 20 stalls and is in good repair. Plenty water at barn and hotel. If home is not sold by Jan. 1 will rent it and can give possession on that date. Can give possession of barn if rented or sold separately on Nov. 25. House and barn newly covered. Hotel is in Graded School district. For further particulars call on or address D. S. CARPENTER, Hustonville, Ky.

What Wits Have Said About Women.

Would you buy a woman's most, am at her affection. —Wallace
The more idle a woman's hand the more occupied her heart. —Dunbar
If men knew all that women think, they would be twenty times more audacious. —Karr
A woman's hopes are woken as sunbeams; a shadow annihilates them. —George Eliot
Beauty is more than wit—it is intelligence both the builder and the beholder. —Zimmernan
Neither walls, nor goods, nor anything is more difficult to be guarded than woman. —Alexis
We only demand that a woman should be womanly. That is not being exclusive. —Hunt
Modesty in a woman is a virtue most deserving, since we do all we can to cure her of it. —Ligierre
Women are never stronger than when they arm themselves with their own weaknesses. —Me de D'And
It is no more possible to do without a wife than it is to dispense with eating and drinking. —Luttrell
When you know a woman's license is not to be endured; when in terror, she is a plague. —Aeschylus
If a woman did turn man out of Paradise, she has done her best ever since to make it up to him. —Shelton
Men always say more of a woman than there really is; and there is always more than is known. —Mozery
Lovers have in their language an infinite number of words in which each syllable is a caress. —Richefleur
A heart which has been once domesticated by matrimony and maternity is as tranquil as a tame bullfinch. —Holmes
A beautiful woman pleases the eye, a good woman pleases the heart; one is a jewel, the other a treasure. —Napoleo I.
A man cannot possess anything that is better than a good woman, nor anything that is worse than a bad one. —Simonides
How wisely it is constituted that tender and gentle women shall be our chief guides, instilling their own spirits. —Channing
It is generally a feminine eye that first detects the moral deficiencies hidden "under the dear deceits." —George Eliot
It is not easy to be a widow. One must resume all the modesty of girlhood without being allowed even to feign ignorance. —Mme. de Girardin
Beloved darlings, who cover over and shadow our malcontents, possess of a counterfeit power of dissimulation and unquietness. —Sir Walter Raleigh
What is it that renders friendship between women so lukewarm and of so short duration? It is the intensity of love and the jealousy of conquest. —Rousseau
To give you nothing and to make you expect everything; to dawdle on the threshold of love while the doors are closed—this is all the science of a coquette. —T. Bernard
Women have a personal envy of our vices; they are less vicious than we, not from choice, but because we restrict them; they are slaves of order and fashion. —Johnson
I am a strenuous advocate of liberty and property; but when these rights are invaded by a pretty woman, I am neither able to defend my money nor my freedom. —Junius
Women speak easily of platonic love, but when they appear to esteem it highly, there is not a single ribbon in their toilet that does not drive platonic from our hearts. —Richard
